

Consent to the processing of personal data

Being aware of the importance of my actions, I voluntarily provide ARTEN law firm (website: keeplaw.com.ua) your personal data and information with limited access (phone number, surname,name, patronymic, e-mail address and other data specified by me in the feedback forms of the above site) to provide me with legal advice, advice, conclusions or services that relate to my request on the company's website.

Also, I understand that the above information about me may also be provided to third parties directly involved in the provision of these legal services/consultations, as well as in other cases provided by law.

My personal data can not be transferred to third parties who are engaged in the creation of banks/databases and are not associated with the provision of legal services to me for further use for commercial or advertising purposes.